Professional Qualification Standards

The principal investigator and anyone functioning as lead field investigator must meet the minimum professional qualifications listed in the "Archaeology and Historic Preservation: Secretary of Interior's Standards and Guidelines" for the type of services needed:

History

Archeology

Architectural History

Architecture

Historic Architecture

Archival Research

---

Archival research or background research is undertaken prior to any field survey. The archival research is often carried out as part of an investigation survey but may be undertaken as a stand alone survey to develop the necessary data to decide if an investigation survey is warranted. Possible sources should include, but are not limited to, historical maps, atlases, tax records, photographs, ethnographies, the state preservation plan (Preserve Alabama, Volumes I and II), the Alabama State Site Files, the National Register of Historic Places, the Alabama Register of Historic Places, folk life documentation, oral histories, previous studies, local informants, local historical/archaeological societies.

Deliverables

Report

Archival Research reports if carried out as a stand-alone survey shall contain enough information for NRCS to make an informed decision and/or finding and an outside party can understand the basis for that decision or finding. This report shall contain at minimum the following information which should include any appropriate pictures, maps and drawings:
